Poppy's favorite little co-pilot,
you're turning 3-years old today.

Momma-Bear and I are so proud and happy you made your appearance into our lives three short years ago.

And we're so excited to see the little guy you are becoming. Each day a little bit of your personality shines thru, and turns out you are quite the character.

From friendships and smiles you are already making, to the adventures ahead

much love little man.
